Section 1. Membership Classes
SAIS shall provide all classes of membership as contained in Article II of the constitution of AIS. All members of SAIS shall be members of AIS upon payment of appropriate dues.

Section 2. Dues
The Executive Board shall have the authority to determine the SAIS dues and other payments to be made by members of the chapter from time-to-time. The annual dues of each member of SAIS shall be paid prior to the beginning of the membership year as
Section 3. Membership Rights
Each regular member shall have the right to vote, participate in all SAIS and AIS activities, and hold office in SAIS and AIS.

Section 4. Liability of Members
The members of the chapter shall not be liable for debts and obligations of the SAIS nor of AIS.

Article III
Meetings of Members

Section 1. Annual Meeting/Conferences
An annual meeting shall be held to install officers and to conduct such business as required. The time, location, and other details of the meeting shall be determined by the Executive Board and communicated to the membership.

Section 2. Notice of Meetings
A written notice stating the place, time, date and hour of the meeting shall be delivered to the membership prior to the meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed delivered when deposited with the United States Postal Service, addressed to the member at the address as it appears on the records of the association with postage thereon paid. If e-mailed, such notice shall be deemed delivered to an appropriate Internet post office, addressed to the member at the e-mail address as it appears on the records of the association.

Section 3. Quorum
Prior notice of a meeting having been given, those members present shall constitute a quorum.

Section 4. Voting
Any non-student attendee to at least one of the prior three (3) SAIS annual conferences or any person who is a current member of the chapter shall be entitled to one vote on business pertaining to the chapter. Decision shall be by majority of those participating and eligible to vote. All members who are eligible to vote have absentee voting rights for the election of officers. Elections on any other matter, including election of officers, may be conducted by any means chosen by the Executive Committee, including electronic mail.
Article IV
Executive Board

Section 1. Members of the Executive Board
The Executive Board shall consist of the officers of the chapter, the past two presidents of the chapter and six at-large directors. The president of the chapter shall serve as the chair of the Executive Board. Until two past presidents are available, the membership shall elect voting members as at-large positions on the Executive Board.

Section 2. Duties of the Executive Board
The Executive Board shall serve as the governing authority of the chapter. The property, business, and affairs of the chapter shall be managed by the Executive Board. The Executive Board may exercise all such power of the chapter as defined by law or these by-laws.

The Executive Board shall, in furtherance, but not in limitation of its powers, have the authority and power to:

1. Represent the members of the chapter for all matters, internal and external.

2. Establish policies and practices for the chapter.

3. Approve board arrangements for all chapter activities.

Section 3. Meetings of the Executive Board
There shall be at least two annual meetings. Additional meetings may be called by the chair or at least three members of the Executive Board. The meetings will be held at the time, place and manner designated by the chair. Notice of the meeting will be given in writing or verbally at least seven (7) days before the meeting. Other methods of meeting in addition to face-to-face may be used.

5. Render to the President and members of the Executive Board, whenever they request it, an account of the financial condition of the chapter.
6. Prepare and file all financial reports required by statute.
Section 13. Duties of the Immediate Past-President
The immediate Past-President of the Chapter shall serve as the chair of the Nominating and Election committee.

Article VI
Committees

Section 1. Special Committees
The President may establish and appoint special committees, not having and exercising the authority of the Executive Board in the management of the affairs of the chapter.

Section 2. Nominating and Election Committee
Not less than Sixty (60) days prior to the annual election of officers and directors, the Past-President with the consent of the Executive Board, shall appoint at least two (2) additional members to a Nominating and Election Committee chaired by the Past-President. This Committee will consist of voting members of the Chapter. This committee will prepare a slate of nominees for chapter offices and conduct the subsequent annual election of officers and directors of the Chapter according to the processes and procedures set out in preceding sections.

Article VII
Finances

Section 1. Fiscal Year
The fiscal year of the chapter shall coincide with the fiscal year of AIS.

Section 2. Fund Deposits
All funds of the Chapter shall be promptly deposited in qualified bank accounts established in the chapter’s name by AIS. Any funds acquired by the chapter shall be clearly marked for deposited to the account of the chapter. Funds of the chapter shall not be co-mingled with the funds of the AIS or any other entity.

Section 3. Fund Disbursements
All disbursements of funds of the chapter shall be made by checks signed by the Treasurer or, in the event the Treasurer is unavailable, by the President.

Section 4. Treasurer’s Report
The Treasurer shall provide to the Executive Board’s meeting a written report of the chapter’s financial status, which any member of the chapter may inspect upon request. The Treasurer’s accounts shall be audited annually at the end of the fiscal year by an independent representative appointed by the Executive Board.

Section 5. Dissolution
Upon dissolution of the chapter, all assets remaining after disposition of all liabilities will be distributed to the members.
Article VIII
Amendments

These by-laws may be altered, amended, or repealed, and new and other by-laws may be adopted by resolution or resolutions duly adopted by a majority of the Executive Board with the vote conducted in person or electronically and submitted to and duly adopted by a two-thirds vote of the voting membership present and voting at any meeting of the Chapter, with proper advance notice of such vote to members. In addition, changes to the Bylaws shall be consistent with “Bylaws 8. SUBDIVISIONS section, 6. Changes in Bylaws” of the Bylaws of the AIS.

Amendment I
Approved at the general membership meeting, March 8, 2003.

In the event of a vacancy on the Executive Board, the President is empowered to appoint a replacement for the remaining term of the vacancy. Such appointment shall be confirmed by a majority vote of the Executive Board members.

In the event that the aforementioned vacancy shall occur in the office of the President, then the immediate Past President shall make the replacement appointment and submit it to the Executive Board for confirmation.

Amendment II
Approved at the general membership meeting, March 9, 2007.

The President with concurrence of the majority of the Board has the authority to create ad hoc positions as necessary and to appoint individuals to fill those positions. Ad hoc positions report to the Board and will be reviewed annually.

Amendment III
Approved at the general membership meeting, March 26, 2010.

Create an Executive Board office for a Journal of Southern Association of Information Systems Liaison. This officer shall communicate with and report on the activities of the JSAIS on behalf of the SAIS board.

Amendment IV
Approved at the general membership meeting, March 26, 2010.

Reduce the number of At-Large Board members from 6 to 5 to preserve the current size of the Executive board.
